FUNDING: Welsh Government launches two new funds for events and their supply chains

The Welsh Government are inviting event organisers, supply chain businesses and others with a role in the events industry to apply to two new pilot discretionary funds from Event Wales:

- The Sector Development Fund seeks to support projects that are able to demonstrate that they will make a real difference to the events industry in Wales, especially in areas such as skills development. Guidance can be found at:
<https://www.gov.wales/event-wales-sector-development-fund-application-guidance>
- The Sustainability Innovation Fund is open to projects to develop new and innovative approaches to environmental sustainability at events. Guidance can be found at:

CAMPAIGN: Stop Food Waste Day 26 April 2023

Stop Food Waste Day, taking place on 26 April 2023, is the largest single day of action in the fight against food waste. Wasting food is a waste of the energy to grow, harvest, process and cook, and food waste in landfill can cause methane emissions, a potent greenhouse gas. More information about how to get involved can be found at:

<https://www.stopfoodwasteday.com/en/about.html>

A simple resource offered by Food and Drink Wales, providing tips on how to reduce food waste, packaging, and energy use in the kitchen, can be found at:

RESOURCES: Wales Coast Path Business Newsletter

The first edition of the Wales Coast Path and National Trails in Wales business newsletter is now available, with free promotional resources for businesses – professional images for marketing materials, latest news on campaigns and links to walking itineraries to share with customers. To read the newsletter, go to:

CAMPAIGN: World Intellectual Property Day 2023

The World Intellectual Property Day is celebrated every year on 26 April. The theme for 2023 is “Women and IP: Accelerating innovation and creativity” and celebrates the ground-breaking work of women inventors, creators and entrepreneurs around the world. More information and resources can be found at:
